CALLING ALL GRADUATES

Next week we will be having our annual St. Nicholas Church Graduates edition of the bulletin. Do we have any eighth grade, high school, college or post-graduate graduates this year?? Please let Kim Busel by June 17th so that our graduates can be featured in the bulletin next week: k.busel@att.net. We will also celebrate their achievements next Sunday for all who can attend. Congratulations to all graduates and their families.

SECOND PILGRIMAGE/OTPUST TO TAYLOR, PA

We are discussing organizing a second trip because of the interest by those who went to see the icon and want to witness the miracle again (and take other people) and those who were not able to attend the first pilgrimage. Several dates are being discussed during late summer. If you are interested in going on the second pilgrimage, there is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the Main Hall. Please indicate if you would want to travel to Taylor, PA by a mini-bus. For those who are interested from other locations, please contact Stephanie Salony, stephanie.salony@comcast.net, so we can include you on the list.

HOLY PENTECOST - Rusal'a

Many thanks to those who came early to help beautify the inside and outside of the church in green for Pentecost – Rusal'a, last Sunday. As you can see, the church looked lovely. Thank you also to Jan Kormanik, Stephanie Salony, Paul Sikoryak and Robert Stack who provided all of the greenery.

What Are Fathers Made Of?

by Paul Harvey

A father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth, without an anesthetic.

A father is a thing that growls when it feels good—and laughs loud when it's scared half to death.

A father never feels entirely worthy of worship in his child's eyes. He never is quite the hero his daughter thinks, never quite the man his son believes him to be. This worries him, sometimes, so he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a thing that gets very angry when school grades aren't as good as he thinks they should be. He scolds his son although he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers grow old faster than other people.

And while mothers can cry where it shows, fathers stand there and beam outside—and die inside. Fathers have very stout hearts, so they have to be broken sometimes or no one would know what is inside. Fathers give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's.

Fathers fight dragons almost daily. They hurry away from the breakfast table, off to the arena which is sometimes called an office or a workshop...where they tackle the dragon with three heads: Weariness, Work and Monotony.

Knights in shining armor.

Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who will live the longest. Though they know the odds, they keep right on betting. Even as the odds get higher and higher, they keep right on betting more and more.

And one day they lose.

But fathers enjoy an earthly immortality and the bet is paid off to the part of him he leaves behind.

I don't know where fathers go when they die. But I have an idea that after a good rest, he won't be happy unless there is work to do. He won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore. He'll be busy there, too...oiling the gates, smoothing the way.

Good Day!
