FOOD DRIVE EFFORT AT ST. NICHOLAS
While St Nicholas Church will be collecting food for area distribution year-round now. A large container is located in #2 hall for all donations. Once the container is full, we will bring it to a tri-state food pantry in need. Thanks to all who have contributed to this worthy cause. It is greatly appreciated.

Dear Parish Faithful,

It has come to my attention after a warm and heartfelt discussion with one of our board members that there is some confusion as to what has transpired with my family leaving our beloved St. Nicholas parish.

As you are all aware the rectory and hallway outside of it have been deemed unsafe for Antoni by the board, the diocese, and my family. Initially Pani and I were going to live apart until early fall to give the parish some time to find a way to deal with these costly repairs. While Pani and I agreed to live apart, some people felt that it was not good for a couple as young as we are with a child to be separated for such a long period of time. Thus I was ordered to move back to Cincinnati and await a new assignment at a date to be determined some time in the future. In addition to this I also requested to be temporarily placed at the rectory in Yonkers in order to continue to serve all of you. This was deemed impossible.

In moving back to Cincinnati I requested to remain there for one year because we will have to find an apartment, sign a lease, and both seek employment. As a new father and husband I felt it was the right thing to do to remain in Cincinnati for one year in order to create stability for my family. What I did not want to have happen is to move there, settle in, get jobs, and then immediately have to be put through the stress of another move within less than a year's time.

Please be assured that Pani and I love it here! We would be honored and overjoyed to come back to all of you if the repairs could be made one day.

Sincerely,

Fr. Joseph and Pani Constance

NYC Marathon – Team Tracy

Dear Friends and Family,

This past May my best friend, my heart & soul, my hero, my girlfriend Tracy Heidenfelder lost her long battle with cancer. To honor her and everything she fought so very hard for I am running the NYC Marathon this coming November.

I am running to raise funds for the people who relentlessly tried to save Tracy's life, Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital. I am calling upon all of you, Family, Friends, and Acquaintances, for support. Any donations (regardless of size) will be beyond appreciated! Help support the war against cancer and keep Tracy's legacy alive one mile at a time.

Even though Tracy is not physically here with us anymore her smile, spirit, and beautifully reckless attitude will forever be in our hearts. Please show your support and love for her by donating to HER cause. Let's stop imagining a world without cancer and let's make it a REALITY!

With much love and appreciation,

Anthony Dalli & The Heidenfelders

If you want to make a donation to Sloan Kettering by supporting Anthony in the NYC Marathon, send an email to Lauren Tymus – ltymus@yahoo.com. She will send you the link to Anthony's page.

The Renewal of Vows of John and Justine Gidicsin

Let us pray to the Lord: Lord have mercy.

John: I, John, take you Justine for my wife, and I solemnly promise to love and respect you, to be faithful to you always, and that I will never leave you until death. So, help me God, one in the Holy Trinity, the blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints.

Justine: I, Justine, take you John for my husband, and I solemnly promise to love and respect you, to be faithful to you always, and that I will never leave you until death. So, help me God, one in the Holy Trinity, the blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints.

Priest: What God has joined together let no man separate; and I, an unworthy priest, by the virtue of the power given to me, now renew you in Holy Matrimony in the Orthodox Church. I confirm and sign it, in the Name of the Father + and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit +. Amen.

Priest: The servant of God, John, is crowned to the handmaid of God Justine, in the name of the Father + and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit +. Amen.

The handmaid of God, Justine, is crowned to the servant of God John, in the name of the Father + and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit +. Amen.

Priest: O Lord crown them with honor and glory! Amen.

Priest: Let us say with our whole soul and mind, let us say: Lord have mercy.

Priest: O Lord Almighty God of our fathers we pray to you hear us and have mercy: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Have mercy on us o God according to your great mercy we pray to you hear us and have mercy: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Let us pray for the health and salvation of the servants of God John and Justine, and for the renewal of their marriage: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Let us pray for all the people here present who await your great and abundant mercy, for those who have shown us kindness and for all Orthodox Christians: Lord have mercy.

Priest: For you are a merciful God who loves mankind and we give glory to you, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit now and ever and unto ages of ages: Amen.

Priest: O Lord our God, Who in Your saving providence, by Your presence in Cana of Galilee, sanctified marriage, keep in peace and unity Your servants, John and Justine, whom it has pleased You to renew in marriage. Assist them in making their marriage holy and grant that their life be without sin. Enable them to attain a long life, observing Your commandments with a pure heart. For You are our God, a merciful and saving God, and we give glory to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages: Amen.

Cantor: O Lord, O Lord, look down from Heaven and see, and visit this vineyard which Your right hand has planted.

O Holy Martyrs, you have suffered courageously and received your reward: pray to the Lord, our God, to have mercy on our souls.

Glory to You O Christ our God, pride of the Apostles and joy of the martyrs, who proclaimed the consubstantial Trinity.

Rejoice, O Isaias! The Virgin was with Child and bore a Son, Emmanuel. He is God and Man, Orient is his name. By extolling Him we also praise the Virgin.

Priest: I now present to all of you husband and wife.
